There are many new parts numbers that are not yet listed in the BSA Parts Books. If not absolutely certain of the correct number, please leave your parts order form blank in the numbering section and insert the nomenclature telling us what you require. An early number inserted in the number section can easily be misinterpreted when your order is made up. Don't hesitate to attach a small note to your order. A full description will speed your service and prevent error. We process hundreds of orders weekly and each order is analyzed as best possible but errors are inevitable unless your needs are plainly and completely stated.
